1. Organize and run immigration clinics and workshops, some of which may take place in the evening
2. Conduct follow-up needed after the clinics and workshops, including return phone calls to clients, data entry, and the assembling of pro se legal applications for review by attorneys
3. Conduct intake interviews in English and Spanish with potential clients, in-person and over the phone, in order to sign them up for clinics and workshops or provide appropriate information and referrals

4. Provide administrative support such as copying and scanning, logging mail, and other tasks as needed
5. Assist with and participate in community outreach and education events

Knowledge, Skills, & Abilities Required

1. Excellent written and oral communication skills
2. Fluent in Spanish
3. Strong organizational and time management skills
4. Commitment to serving low-income and under-served communities
5. Ability to relate to and communicate with a broad range of clients and colleagues
6. Values working cooperatively with others, both within the organization and in the community
7. Displays enthusiasm and a willingness to accept responsibility and fulfill job requirements
8. Familiarity with use of Gmail, Google Calendar, Dropbox, Microsoft Word, and Zoom preferred

SALARY: Commensurate with experience. Competitive benefits package.

APPLICATION: Please send a resume, cover letter, writing sample, and list of three references to jobs@clsepa.org with the subject heading “Intake and Clinic Coordinator” or send your materials to: Community Legal Services in East Palo Alto - Human Resources, 1861 Bay Road, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. No calls.

In your cover letter, please address the following in order for your application to be considered. CLSEPA’s clientele is extremely diverse, and the majority of our clients are low income persons of color. It is critical that our staff work effectively in all cross-cultural situations, with clients, with our coworkers, and with the community, and that we create an inclusive and respectful workplace in which differences are acknowledged and valued. How do you think your personal background or experiences, professional or otherwise, have prepared you to contribute to our commitment to cultural humility and diversity amongst our staff? Feel free to think broadly about your response to this question, applying various aspects of your life and personal experiences
